

WHERE ARE YOU FROM?

En la clase anterior, además de estudiar los personal pronouns I y you, y las formas am ('m) y are ('re) del verbo be, aprendimos a preguntar con where: Where are you from? y también a preguntar con Are you: Are you from Sidney?

Así, vimos que:

- I am = I'm = soy: I'm Graciela. I'm a teacher.
You are = You're = vos sos / usted es: You're Leo Messi. You're a football player.
- Where are you from? = es la pregunta que usamos para averiguar sobre el lugar de procedencia de alguien.
- Are you from...? = sirve para preguntar si alguien es de un lugar. Esta pregunta tiene por respuesta si o no: Yes, I am. / No I'm not.

Let's practice:

1. Complete the dialogue with 'm, are or where

S: Hi, I... Sue.

T: Hello, I... Tom.

S: Nice to meet you.

T: Nice to meet you too.

S: you from?

T: I... from Australia.

S: Oh! ... you from Sidney?

T: No, I... not. I... from Melbourne.

¿Qué están haciendo Sue y Tom en este diálogo?

¿Hay fórmulas o expresiones de cortesía? ¿Cuáles son?

2. Now, practice with your classmates and guess the city

Where are you from?

I'm from Argentina.

Oh, are you from Buenos Aires?

No, I'm not.

Are you from ...?

No, I'm ...

Veamos ahora nuevos pronombres y una nueva forma de 'be':

1. Look at the photos of people at Heathrow Airport, London.
 - A. Who is a tourist?
 - B. Read the texts and check your answer.
